Appendix 4:

The Early Van Tuyls of Gelre

Timeline

Van Tuyl Family

Heer Ghijsbrecht
Knight, vassal of Edward, Duke of Gelre
[I]

Arndt, Servant to Duke of Gelre at the castle of Oyen
[II]

Reyner, Squire
Heer van Est
[III]

Sander, Schout of Brakel
High Bench of Zuilichem
[IV]

Reyner, Schout of Brakel
High Bench of Zuilichem
[V]

Sander,
High Bench of Zuilichem
[VI]

Jan Sanders,
High Bench of Zuilichem
[VII]

1586: Jan Sandersz [VII] van Tuyl marries Marijke van Oever, moves to Gameren

Ott,
Farmer
[VIII]

1663: Jan Otten van Tuyl emigrates

The Netherlands

1320

1339: Gelre Elevated to Duchy
1343: War of Succession Between Sons of Duke Reinald II 1361

1350

1368: St. Maarten's Church Construction Begins

Hundred Year's War

1400

1418: Gelre Unites against Burgundy
1429: Battles of the Veluwe

1450

1481: Burgundy takes Zaltbommel
1493: Sack of Poederoyen

1500

1508: Poederoyen Destroyed
1511: Dirck van Haeften captures Zaltbommel

1543: Treaty of Venlo cedes Low Countries to German Emperor Charles V
1555: Philip of Spain given the Low Countries

1550

1566: Iconoclasms...Duke of Alba cracks down.
1572: Geuzen take Zaltbommel
1574: Siege of Zaltbommel. Iconoclasm at Brakel
1585: Spanish raid across the Maas
1587: 1st Protestant minister in Brakel

1600

1599: Prince Maurits Defends Zaltbommel

Eighty Year's War with Spain

1624: Dutch settle Nieuw Amsterdam
1629: Prince Frederik Hendrik takes 's Hertogenbosch
1642: 1st Protestant minister in Gameren

1660